Beautiful townhouses with open views on the outskirts of Jesús Pobre

Jesús Pobre is known for its location on the Montgó, the beautiful nature reserve with the microclimate that ensures the best air quality in Europe.

Jesús Pobre is also known for its weekly farmers market and once a month the large antiques market, which attracts people from the wider area.

With Denia and Javea 9 kilometers away with beautiful beaches, ports and a large variety of culinary options makes it wonderful to stay.

Alicante airport (70 minutes) and Valencia 1.5 hours are within easy reach.
